2015 NYO Games Alaska

OPPORTUNITIES

NYO Games Alaska | April 16-18, 2015 | Alaska Airlines Center | Anchorage, Alaska

Our young people are our greatest resource

Gloria O'Neill
President & CEO
Cook Inlet Tribal Council

Teamwork, leadership, cross-cultural understanding, and respect. These are the values that make strong communities and build tomorrow's leaders. That is what NYO Games all about, bringing students together from throughout the state for healthy athletic competition—providing them with opportunities to celebrate their achievements and advance their potential.

Celebrating its 45th year, NYO is a cherished tradition we all look forward to with great anticipation. More than 2,000 students from more than 50 communities across Alaska compete in the Games. We applaud our young athletes' commitment and hard work as they strive for their own personal best.

That is why NYO is so important to our community and our state. NYO Games promote good sportsmanship, and foster understanding between diverse communities and cultures. They nurture the mental toughness and determination that young people need to succeed in school, train for a job, and become responsible adults and parents. NYO is a training ground for tomorrow's leaders—what could be more important?

Hosting NYO Games is a tremendous team effort, and we need your help to make this year's Games possible. We invite you to make an investment in our youth—tomorrow's leaders—by sponsoring the 2015 NYO Games Alaska. Your sponsorship goes directly to supporting this important community event that serves Alaska students of all cultures.

We hope to see you at the Games, so you can experience for yourself the tremendous skill and dedication of the athletes. These dynamic young people inspire us with their enthusiasm and talent, and give us great confidence in the future. ❖

Sincerely,

Invest in our Youth Today!

NYO is a year-round program that has a quantifiable positive impact on more than 2,000 youth each year. NYO influences our youth to improve their academic performance, strengthens overall health and well-being, and instills important values, including leadership and respect—values that make strong communities and build tomorrow’s leaders.

In a survey emphasizing NYO’s impact, 399 NYO athletes in grades 7–12 who competed in the 2014 NYO Games offered the following insight:

- 70% credited NYO as an incentive to stay in school
- 67% improved or kept up their grades in order to continue participation in NYO Games
- 70% indicated improved self-confidence
- 47% indicated improved leadership and self-esteem
- 39% reported improved overall health
- 33% indicated a greater sense of well-being
- 80% see themselves as a role-model for future NYO athletes
- 82% learned about Alaska Native culture and values
- 90% developed new friendships with other athletes, coaches, and teachers
- 10% stopped using tobacco products
- 5% stopped using alcohol
- 4% stopped using illegal substances
- 154 athletes indicated they practice at least 7-10 hours per week

Your investment builds tomorrow’s leaders!

Gold and Silver levels

ALICE STRICK OF WASILLA tied her own World record in the One-Foot High Kick event in 2011.

Two-Foot High Kick

The Two-Foot High Kick is a supreme test of abdominal strength and balance. Jumping with both feet simultaneously, athletes kick a suspended ball, then land on both feet without falling backward. The ball is raised in increments of four inches after each round. Each athlete is allowed three attempts at each height. When all but three athletes have been eliminated, the ball is raised in one-inch increments until there is a winner.

THE NYO GAMES help foster a better understanding of diverse communities and cultures through a variety of engaging performances.

For kids to participate in the Games, their grades need to be in good order, and I know that NYO is an important influence on kids in keeping their grades up. During practice, we talk about what one needs for success, I call it the 3 D's: dedication, desire, and discipline ... and that's what NYO is all about. Most importantly, being part of NYO is like being a part of a family.”

WHO WE ARE

People. Partnership. Potential.

Cook Inlet Tribal Council (CITC) stands for people, partnership, and potential. We are a tribal nonprofit organization helping Alaska Native and American Indian people residing in the Cook Inlet Region of Southcentral Alaska reach their full potential. We believe that when we work together, we can help each other develop our strengths and talents, and become successful and self-sufficient individuals, families, and communities.

Since inception in 1983, CITC has grown from a fledgling, grass-roots operation with only three employees, to one of the nation's preeminent culturally responsive social-service organizations serving more than 10,000 individuals annually, and employing nearly 200 passionate and caring people. Our full range of support services includes education, employment and training services, workforce development, family preservation, and support for individuals recovering from addiction and substance abuse.

CITC is built on values rooted in Alaska Native cultures, and the belief that investing in individual human potential builds human capital. All of our programs are steeped in our deeply held belief that true self-determination is grounded in self-sufficiency and the ability to take responsibility for one's own life, family, and community. ❖

Alaska Education Tax Credit Expansion

Opportunity for Business Tax Savings & Aid to Alaska Native Cultural Programs

Invest in Cook Inlet Tribal Council educational and cultural programs and receive substantial tax benefits:

In July, 2011, the Alaska State Legislature expanded the size and scope of the Alaska Education Tax Credit by increasing the financial benefits for corporations making cash donations to eligible institutions.

If you make a contribution to a Cook Inlet Tribal Council educational support or Alaska Native cultural or heritage program (NYO Games Alaska, Dena'ina House, Partners for Success, and Culture Camp), and your company pays any of the taxes listed below, you can receive Alaska Educational Tax Credit for up to 50-100 percent of your total gift, up to $5 million.

The greater the gift, the greater the savings! The tax credit allows for progressive tiers where the donor company will receive additional credits on amounts above the previous tier. For example, after the tax credit is applied, the total net cost for a $300,000 investment is $32,500 (see chart below).

- 50 percent of your contribution up to $100,000
- 100 percent of your contribution on amounts between $100,000 to $300,000
- 50 percent of your contribution on amounts more than $300,000
