

Other Education Resources

- The EI Scholarship and Grant Program Guidelines has information for other scholarship and grant opportunities.
- TCF and CITC also have numerous resources.
- Also, consult your high school guidance counselor or the nearest university or college that may have an "Education Opportunity Center." The Center provides counseling and information on colleges, universities, vocational training institutes and other postsecondary education programs that are offered in person and online/distance delivery.
- Career counseling and resources are available for prospective students to explore fields of study and aptitude assessment in order to consider what interests and potential the student may have in choosing a postsecondary education goal.

Eklutna, Inc. Scholarship and Grant Program Administered by The CIRI Foundation and Cook Inlet Tribal Council

Purpose

The purpose of the Eklutna, Inc. Scholarship and Grant Program is to provide educational opportunities for the success of Eklutna Beneficiaries through achievement of lifelong learning and personal development while respecting self-determination and culture.

Eligibility

Eligible applicants for EI scholarships and grants, as defined in the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act of 1971 [43 U.S.C. 1602(b)], include Alaska Native people who are original enrollees to Eklutna, Inc., natural or legally adopted such as a child, grandchild, great-grandchild, etc. whether or not the lineal descendant owns EI shares of stock.

Scholarship and Grant Awards

EI education funds are for tuition, registration fees, course-required books/supplies and equipment / uniforms required for a successful job hire. All scholarships and grants are subject to available funding from the EI Scholarship and Grant Program Designated Fund.

An applicant may not receive more than one award at the same time during the calendar year.

All applications are reviewed, based upon eligibility, qualification, and standard selection criteria contained in the EI Guidelines to ensure objectivity and impartiality in awarding scholarships and grants.

Application Forms and Guidelines

To apply for any of the EI Scholarship and Grant Program opportunities, please obtain the EI Program Guidelines and appropriate application form from the Administrators' websites.
