Luqu Kenu Screening Guidelines: Luqu Kenu is a program designed to provide support for Alaska Native and/or American Indian families who have physical and legal custody of their children and reside in the Anchorage area.

- Does this family reside in the Municipality of Anchorage? Yes No
- Does this family identify as Alaska Native and/or American Indian? Yes No (Please note that this does include non-Native parents or caregivers of AN/AI children.)
- Physical Custody: Does this parent have physical custody? Yes No (Please note that physical custody generally means the biological parent(s) live with their children, or if a caregiver, they have a court order. If you have questions about physical custody, please feel free to call us at 907-793-3177.)
- Legal Custody: Does this parent have legal custody? Yes No (Generally speaking, if parents or caregivers have the authority to enroll their children in school or take them to the doctor, that means that they have legal custody of their children. If you have questions about legal custody, please feel free to call us at 907-793-3177.)
- Has the family granted permission for us to contact them by phone? Yes No
- Have you attached a copy of the current Release of Information (ROI) from this participant with this referral? Yes No We appreciate receiving a copy of the current ROI with the referral whenever possible.

Thank you for this referral. We look forward to connecting with this participant! ~ Your Luqu Kenu team
